Words of Welcome

Michael Gregg

Centering Words & Candle Lighting

Tim Schaefer

We live among neighbors who hunger for spiritual truth but do not know where it may be found. Paul's question is as true today as it was two thousand years ago: "How are they to believe in one of whom they have never heard? And how are they to hear without someone to proclaim him? . . . As it is written, 'How beautiful are the feet of those who bring good news!'"

Call to Worship

Harry Wooten

For hearing us when we cried for mercy!

Thank you, Jesus.

For feeding us when our hands were unclean!

Thank you, Jesus.

For welcoming us when we were strangers!

Thank you, Jesus.

For healing us when we were wounded.

Thank you, Jesus.

For sending us to do the same.

Thank you, Jesus.

Invocation

Harry Wooten

O Lord, calm us into a quietness that heals and listens, and molds our longings and passions, our wounds and wonderings into a more holy and human shape. Amen.

Prayers of the People

Sandy & Lindsey Washington

Oh God, visit us now in our mourning. Blood has been shed, precious lives have been lost, evil has had its say.

Guide our feet to good trouble, O God.

We acknowledge the hold racism and prejudice have on our national psyche. We acknowledge that violence has been matched with violence, and many are in pain and distress.

Guide our feet to good trouble, O God.

We pray now for your Church, part of the body of Christ on earth, that it may be a voice of peace, and a light of love, working for reconciliation, unity and justice.

Guide our feet to good trouble, O God.

We stand in solidarity with everyone, all races, all skin colors, all ethnicities. We stand against racism and injustice. We stand for love.

Guide our feet to good trouble, O God.

Accompany all who are lonely, hear the voices of those who cry out in anguish, and support those who are frustrated in their search for an affordable place to live. We pray for those suffering this day in the certain hope that nothing can separate us from your love.

Today we pray especially for those we name now silently or aloud or post in the comments section.

We offer these prayers to you, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Communion

Harry Wooten & Worshipers

Let us gather around the table with the offering of bread and drink and the promise of the Living Christ among us. This is the welcome table of God where all who seek to be at peace with their neighbor and all who seek the mercy of God in Christ are embraced. Come, for we are invited into this holy mystery.

Jesus said: “I am the bread of life. All who come to me shall not hunger, and all who believe in me shall never be thirsty.

We remember that on the night of betrayal and desertion, Jesus took his authority as the Christ and offered the bread in thanksgiving and said . . .

“Take, eat. This is my body which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me.”

In the same way, and by the same authority, Jesus offered the cup in thanksgiving and said . . .

“Take, drink. This is my blood of the new covenant which is poured out for you and for many, for the forgiveness of sins. Do this, as often as you drink it in remembrance of me.”

Communion Prayer

Gracious and loving God, you have made us one in the body of Christ and nourished us at your table with holy food and drink. Thank you for feeding our hunger and relieving our thirst. Now send us into the world to do the work you have given us to do: to find the lost and lonely, to heal the broken souls, to free the prisoners, and make the powerful care. Grant us strength to persevere in resisting evil, and to proclaim in all we say and do your good news in Christ Jesus our Savior. Amen.

Blessing

Harry Wooten & Tim Schaefer

The word of faith is near you, on your lips and in your heart.
How shall others hear unless you proclaim it?

Go now in the generous grace and favor of our God.
How beautiful are the feet of you who bring good news!

Benediction

Michael Gregg

May the generous blessing and favor of our loving, abundant God lift you, sustain you, and send you to the world with the gift of life!
Amen.

Amen.

Deacon Recommendations

In October, the church will elect six (6) deacons to serve a three (3) year term, and two (2) Deacons to serve a one (1) year unexpired term. They will take office in November.

By-Laws Provisions

Article VIII, 3) "No one shall be eligible for election to the Board of Deacons unless such person has been a member of this Church for at least one (1) year prior to his or her election. Upon completion of a term on the Board of Deacons, no one shall be eligible for re-election to the Board of Deacons until the expiration of one (1) year, provided that this restriction shall not be applicable to any Deacon who has been elected to fill the unexpired term of another Deacon and who has served less than one year of such unexpired term. In order that there not be a conflict of interest (or the appearance of a conflict of interest), no member of the Board of Deacons shall also be a full-time or permanent part-time paid member of the staff of this Church. Only one member of an immediate family of the same household shall be elected to serve on the active board of deacons at the same time. Immediate family includes spouse, domestic partner, child, parent or sibling.

Listed below is the active Board of Deacons. The dates indicate when they will rotate off the Board. **Resigned or moved to reserve status.*

Please consider carefully and prayerfully your recommendations for deacons. Use the spaces below to suggest to the Member Resource Committee your recommendations for deacons.

Your Deacon Recommendations

Nominations are due in the church office by noon on Friday, August 28th.

If you have any questions regarding the recommendation of deacon, please contact either Charlotte Sewell (214-533-7326) or Paulette Harrison (214-577-8058).

Qualifications and Characteristics of a Deacon

When accepting a call to serve as a deacon, the person is accepting a call from the congregation and from God. And so, a deacon is ordained because the ordination of deacons indicates that those serving in this capacity should be believers who are Christ-like, mature in faith, and exercise their office with prayer, patience, trust, and humility. Additionally, serving as a deacon puts that person in a leadership role within the congregation, one that should be modeled as that of a servant. The heart of a deacon's calling is to "lead by serving others" in the church and community, as well as to "lead by equipping church members" to serve in the ongoing ministries of the church.

As a believer in God as revealed through the life and works of Jesus Christ, the deacon must care about the members of Royal Lane, be committed to and support the work of the ministries of the church, and appreciate and embrace the diversity of the congregation. This is achieved through careful listening, a humble attitude, and fervent prayer.

Duties and Responsibilities of a Deacon

- Accepts a 3-year commitment to serve on the Board of Deacons
- Faithfully attends each in person or virtual monthly deacons meeting and participates in discussions honestly and with openness to differing opinions
- Supports Royal Lane financially through pledging and regular giving
- Conscientiously fulfills her/his Deacon of the Week duties (on the assigned week):
  1. Greeting visitors in the narthex following worship
  2. Attend Wednesday evening Midweek Meeting and offering a prayer
  3. Contacting visitors by phone, card, or email to answer any questions they may have about Royal Lane
- Leads a Deacon Ministry Group (DMG) consisting of a small group of congregation members:
  1. Regularly check in with assigned DMG through text, email, phone call, or note.
  2. Let the DMG know of upcoming church events and activities
- Prays for the members of the DMG and shares needs with church staff
- Assists with the introduction and engagement of new members into the life and ministries of Royal Lane
- Actively participates as a member of at least one church committee
- Assists the pastor with the preparation and administration of the church ordinances: communion and baptism

Great Is Thy Faithfulness

2. Sum-mer and win - ter, and spring-time and har-vest, sun, moon, and
3. Par - don for sin and a peace that en - dur-eth, Thine own dear

The image shows a musical score for the hymn 'Great Is Thy Faithfulness'. It features a treble clef and a bass clef, both in 3/4 time. The key signature has two flats (B-flat and E-flat). The melody is written in the treble clef, and the bass line is in the bass clef. The lyrics are provided below the notes, with three verses indicated by arrows on the left.

Guide My Feet

1. Guide my feet
2. Hold my hand while I run this race,
3. Stand by me
4. Search my heart

yes, my Lord!

The first system of music features a treble and bass staff in 4/4 time with a key signature of three flats. The melody in the treble staff begins with a quarter note, followed by a half note, and then a series of quarter notes. The bass staff provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and moving lines.

guide my feet
hold my hand while I run this race,
stand by me
search my heart

yes, my Lord!

The second system continues the melody and accompaniment. The lyrics are aligned with the notes in the treble staff. The bass staff continues with its accompaniment.

guide hold my feet
hold my my hand
stand by my me
search my heart while I run this race, for I

yes, my Lord!

The third system introduces the phrase "for I" at the end of the line. The melody and accompaniment continue as in the previous systems.

don't want to run this race in vain! (race in vain!)

The final system concludes the piece with the phrase "don't want to run this race in vain! (race in vain!)". The melody features a final cadence, and the bass staff ends with a sustained chord.

The Scripture this morning is Romans 10:5-15

<sup>5</sup>Moses writes concerning the righteousness that comes from the law, that "the person who does these things will live by them." <sup>6</sup>But the righteousness that comes from faith says, "Do not say in your heart, 'Who will ascend into heaven?'" (that is, to bring Christ down) <sup>7</sup>"or 'Who will descend into the abyss?'" (that is, to bring Christ up from the dead). <sup>8</sup>But what does it say? "The word is near you, on your lips and in your heart" (that is, the word of faith that we proclaim); <sup>9</sup>because if you confess with your lips that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. <sup>10</sup>For one believes with the heart and so is justified, and one confesses with the mouth and so is saved. <sup>11</sup>The scripture says, "No one who believes in him will be put to shame."

<sup>12</sup>For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; the same Lord is Lord of all and is generous to all who call on him. <sup>13</sup>For, "Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved." <sup>14</sup>But how are they to call on one in whom they have not believed? And how are they to believe in one of whom they have never heard? And how are they to hear without someone to proclaim him? <sup>15</sup>And how are they to proclaim him unless they are sent? As it is written, "How beautiful are the feet of those who bring good news!"
