The Worship of God

Trinity Sunday

June 16, 2019

10:55 A.M.

Worship begins with the Chiming of the Hour and the Voluntary.

Please use this as a time of quiet reflection and prayer, and to record your attendance in the blue booklet at the end of the pew, and pass it to others.

To help maintain the spirit of worship, please silence all electronic devices.

✠ – Please rise in body or in spirit.

Chiming of the Hour

Christ be with you ... and also with you!

God takes delight in the works of creation. During the making of the inhabited world, Wisdom rejoiced before God, taking delight in the human race. The psalmist marvels that amidst the wonders of creation, human beings were created but a little lower than God. Paul boasts of our hope to share in God's glory through the love poured out to us in the Holy Spirit. And John declares that this same Spirit will lead us into all truth. On Trinity Sunday, we celebrate the fullness of God that leads us into the fullness of life.

Call to Confession

Garey Wisdom & Congregation

By faith in Jesus Christ, we are given access to the grace of God. Standing in that grace, we now confess our sins before God, seeking forgiveness and peace.

The Confession of Sin

Let us pray:

Triune God, within your own life there is mutuality, equality, and unity in diversity. Though we are made in your image, we confess that we distort the triune life. Instead of seeking mutual welfare and the common good, we seek our own gain. Instead of living in equality, justice, and respect, we construct systems that are unjust. We devise ways to elevate ourselves over others. Holy God, forgive us. Restore us and in our life together, the divine image you intend. We pray to be one with you and one another, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Silence Is Kept

Promise of Forgiveness

Friends, we are still standing in the grace of Christ. Because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit, we are set free to love God and neighbor, and to work for the reconciliation of the world.

We have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ.
Thanks be to God!

Prayers of the People

Margaret Darden & Congregation

Holy, holy, holy God, in calling forth creation from the void, revealing yourself in human flesh, and pouring forth your wisdom to guide us, you manifest your concern for your whole universe. You invite us, as your people, to gather the world's needs into our heart and bring them before you.

Today we pray especially for those we name now silently or aloud. . .

(You may speak aloud the first name of those for whom you wish to pray.)

Silence Is Kept

Let us pray:

Holy, holy, holy God, fill us with strength and courage, with discernment and compassion, that we may be your instruments of justice and love in this world, that it may be on earth as it is in heaven.
Amen.

Reann Tiemann Today's Preacher

Reann is a Chaplain at Children's Medical Center in Dallas. After completing Chaplain residency training at both Parkland and Children's, she is now in the process of application with ACPE: The Standard for Spiritual Care and Education, to become a Certified Educator Candidate. She plans to continue this educational process with Children's Medical Center. Completion of this program will allow Reann the opportunity to serve as educator to students who enter the CPE program. Reann aspires to enable students to realize their full potential, and strengthen the spiritual health of people in their care as well as themselves.

After growing up in Oklahoma, Reann moved to California to attend Seminary. Her daughters, Mara and Lillie were born in California, and they spent many years in the Bay Area before moving to Texas to be closer to family. They currently live in Van Alstyne, anticipating a move to be closer to the Dallas Metroplex.

Reann found Royal Lane while searching for a faith community that shared her values for diversity, justice, and the expanse of God's love for every person. She is currently in the discernment process for ordination, and feels honored to have a supportive church to explore her future story in the journey of God's love and grace for all persons.

The Scripture this morning is John 16:12-15, which may be found on page 879 of the New Testament of the pew Bible.

¹²"I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. ¹³When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth; for he will not speak on his own, but will speak whatever he hears, and he will declare to you the things that are to come. ¹⁴He will glorify me, because he will take what is mine and declare it to you. ¹⁵All that the Father has is mine. For this reason I said that he will take what is mine and declare it to you. (NRSV)

Holy Wisdom, Holy Word...Thanks be to God.
