Call to Worship

R

The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.
He makes me lie down in green pastures;
he leads me beside still waters;
he restores my soul.
He leads me in right paths for his name's sake
Even though I walk through the darkest valley, I fear no evil for you are with me; your rod and your staff—they comfort me.

R

You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies;
You anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

Prayers of the People

Quietly we come to you in prayer. During this time we want to be still and know that you are God. So much of our existence is spent in scrambling and searching that we forget what quietness and contemplation are. Today we ask for a steadying, a refocusing, a reshaping, of our lives. Let us meet you at the deepest places of our hearts. We know we cannot stay still. We must move again. But out of this time of stillness, may we go steadier and surer of who you are and who we are.

Today we pray especially for those we name now silently or aloud, or place in the comment section of the livestream. . .

Silence Is Kept

May our breath move in and out as one with yours. In the silence, we rest, we worship, we open ourselves to you. Amen.

The Scripture this morning is John 8:31-38

³¹Then Jesus said to the Jews who had believed in him, "If you continue in my word, you are truly my disciples; ³²and you will know the truth, and the truth will make you free." ³³They answered him, "We are descendants of Abraham and have never been slaves to anyone. What do you mean by saying, 'You will be made free'?" ³⁴Jesus answered them, "Very truly, I tell you, everyone who commits sin is a slave to sin. ³⁵The slave does not have a permanent place in the household; the son has a place there forever. ³⁶So if the Son makes you free, you will be free indeed.

³⁷I know that you are descendants of Abraham; yet you look for an opportunity to kill me, because there is no place in you for my word.

³⁸I declare what I have seen in the Father's presence; as for you, you should do what you have heard from the Father."
